

SUPPLEMENTARY ACTIVITIES OF THE GRADUATE DIPLOMA PROGRAM(2023)

Activity 1: Set life goals “I will be a good teacher and a good role model.” Then

(1) create an E-portfolio as a source of collection of works related to studying and working in the teaching profession +

(2) Assess your competency related to the Teacher Council’s requirement(Baseline Competency)

(3) Create a self-development plan that covers a set of activities to increase teachers' competency

Activity 2: Study the characteristics of good teachers, and plan for self-development in morals and ethics for teachers; the plan is implemented continuously and assessed at the end of every semester.

Activity 3: Develop yourself in teacher morality and ethics: Caring for students and respect for children's rights; conducting a case study by (1) Observing students in your Class, (2) finding a student who is at risk condition(such as a slow learner, poor achievement, learning disorder, etc.), and (3) Planning and Implementing the Plan to help him.

....Concept of "No Child Left Behind".....

Activity 4: Designing the learning Activities that emphasize the cultivation of morality and ethics for students and Implementing those learning Activities in your Classroom.

Activity 5: Develop yourself to be a Learner person who is eager to learn and accumulate a lot of knowledge from various subjects into your E-Portfolio.

Activity 6: Developing yourself to be a good member of the community you belong to, Academic Society, and being a global citizen. (Emphasis on environmental conservation and respect for children's rights)

Activity 7: Caring, solving problems, and developing students In the role of a classroom teacher including risk management in the classroom.

Activity 8: Design to use digital technology to support learning along with teaching specific subject content.

Activity 9: Creating a research to develop learning.