

THE PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
FOR
THE M.ED. PROGRAM IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION
Revised Version 2021(edit in 2024)

Knowledge (K)

- K1 Knowledge in educational administration Science
- K2 Analyze situations and apply appropriate and feasible knowledge in the context of educational organizations
- K3 Knowledge of strategic management, systemic administration, and using research as a tool to drive educational organizations
- K4 Ability to create innovative alternatives for the development of educational organizations and their management processes

Skills (S)

- S1 Language skills for communication
- S2 Digital skills to support management, learning management, and operations
- S3 Strategic management and teamwork skills in a networked system
- S4 Research skills for work development, creating new knowledge in educational administration, and knowledge management

Ethics (E)

- E1 Professional ethics in educational administration
- E2 Conducting oneself in the role of a good academic leader

Characteristics

- C1 Well-being and academic leadership
- C2 Good governance values
- C3 Responsibility and commitment to leading an organization to success
- C4 Respect for the rights of others